ORDER

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

An additional affidavit has been filed, to the effect, that the entire demanded amount alongwith interest as per calculations of the respondent have already been paid by different cheques, details whereof have been mentioned in the additional affidavit. In view of that, I am not inclined to continue the contempt proceedings any more, they are, therefore, dropped. However, it is made clear that if the petitioner has any more grievance, it will be open to the petitioner to pursue such remedies as may be available to it under law.
